

APSCo Membership

The Association of Professional Staffing Companies (APSCo) is a professional body that represents the interests of organisations engaged in the acquisition of business professionals. APSCo provides a powerful unified voice for the Professional Staffing Industry and is proud to represent, support and promote such a vibrant and innovative sector of the recruitment industry.

- APSCo membership is a badge of quality in the professional recruiting services industry
- APSCo members have undergone a thorough vetting procedure.
- Each member has provided a number of commercial references, which have been independently verified.
- Members operate to a strict Code of Conduct ensuring high quality procedures and industry best practice.
- APSCo members have access to timely and vital information from the latest business intelligence to our weekly political monitor and wide ranging programme of specialist forums and seminars.
- APSCo's close and proactive relationship with relevant government bodies such as BIS and the Treasury keeps members up to date with issues concerning the professional recruitment sector and provides regular insights into proposed employment legislation.
- APSCo members enjoy the support of a legal helpline for swift guidance on compliance issues.
- APSCo members range from small independents to global organisations and cover the vast majority of professional recruitment sectors.

In addition APSCo members will not only be able to find you the right resources for your organisation but will be able to work with you on strengthening your recruitment strategy and keeping you up to date with latest market developments and information which will in turn give you a commercial advantage in your marketplace.